VOLUME CVI.---NO. 40. ALEXANDRIA, VA., THURSDAY EVENING, FEBRUARY 16, 1905. PRICE 2 CENTS.

No joy or pleasure on this earth quite equals that which comes into the home when baby arrives. Who can describe the happiness of man and woman, joined in wedlock, as they look upon the fragile, delicate mite that is blood of their blood and flesh of their flesh? And who can depict the hopelessness and dejection that hover about the home where the wife is incapable of becoming a mother? Barrenness proceeds from some derangement of the distinctly feminine organs. Many of the common ailments known as "female troubles" cause it. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription overcomes barrenness by stamping out diseases of women, and by healing and curing ulceration. It tones up the system, stops drains, and restores strength. During gestation it modifies morning sickness, gives elasticity to the overstrained parts concerned, makes the hour of baby's coming short and almost painless, and gives wonderful recuperative power to the patient. By making the mother strong and cheerful, it makes the little one healthy, vigorous and good natured. Insist upon the medicine dealer giving you Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription when you ask for it. Substitutes are often dangerous.

Mrs. James W. Blacker, of 629 Catherine St., Syracuse, N. Y., writes: "Your medicines have done wonders for me. For years my health was very poor; I had four miscarriages, but since taking Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and 'Favorite Prescription' I have much better health, and now I have a fine healthy baby."

For 21 one-cent stamps to cover cost of mailing only, you can get a free copy of that celebrated doctor book, the Common Sense Medical Adviser, 1008 pages, illustrated. Cloth-bound, 31 stamps. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

SOFTNESS OF SEALSKIN.

Is Rivaled by Human Hair Where Dandruff Is Eradicated.

Sealskin is admired the world over for its softness and glossiness; and yet the human hair is equally as soft and glossy when healthy; and the radical cause of all hair trouble is dandruff, which is caused by a pestiferous parasite that saps the vitality of the hair at its root. Newbro's Herpicide is the only preparation that is fatal to the dandruff germ. Without dandruff there is no falling hair, but a luxuriant growth of glossy, soft hair is certain. Scouring the scalp won't cure dandruff. Kill the dandruff germ. Thousands of women owe their beautiful suits of hair to Newbro's Herpicide. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

GENERAL WALLACE DEAD.

Gen. Lew Wallace died in Crawfordsville, Ind., last night at 9:10 o'clock. He had been a sufferer from cancer of the stomach for some time.

General Wallace was born in Brookville, Franklin county, Ind., in 1827, and he had been in the thick of political, military and literary life since the Mexican war, which he entered before he had attained his majority and from which he emerged a young lieutenant, covered with honors. Apparently nothing in his whole wonderful career to which he had set his hand has been done other than well. Possibly the least success attained by him was as a lawyer, which career he embraced in his early manhood. After the stirring events of the civil war, from which he emerged a major-general, he took up for a brief period the practice of the legal profession. But he did not like the law, and gradually, with diplomatic work interspersed, he undertook the work of a litterateur, in which he had made his most distinguished success.

As the author of "Ben-Hur" General Wallace is known in practically every country of the globe. No other book since the days of "Pilgrim's Progress" has been so widely read. An estimate indicates that from the total number of editions of the book that have been sold at least 4,000,000 persons have read and enjoyed the Hoosier soldier's beautiful tale of the lowly Nazarene. The dramatization of the work, which was completed in 1901, further extended the general knowledge of the story and added largely as well to the fame and profit of the author.

General Wallace was "to the manor born," his father, David Wallace, having been elected Governor of Indiana in 1837 and to Congress in 1842 from the Indianapolis district.

In his youthful days General Wallace displayed a tendency to neglect the opportunities which his father's position gave him. He hated books and schools, and remained at school only so long as it was impossible to avoid. In this manner he acquired but little real foundational education.

Previous to the outbreak of the Mexican war General Wallace had commenced the study of law. When the call for soldiers came he was among the first to enlist. He was not then 20 years old, but his services were so meritorious that he came back from the war a lieutenant. At the close of the war he married Susan A. Elston, widow of a pioneer of Crawfordsville.

When Garfield was elected President he sent for Wallace, who was a close personal friend, and during the conversation offered to make him Minister to Constantinople on the condition that he would write another book during his stay in Turkey. The proffer was accepted by General Wallace. During his voyage to Europe Garfield was assassinated, but Wallace considered his promise to write a book as a sacred pledge. "The Prince of India" was the result.

As a diplomat General Wallace was eminently successful. During his service in Turkey he gained the confidence of the Sultan to a remarkable degree. The Sultan showered him with presents.

One of the most important events in the career of General Wallace was the period immediately following the close of the civil war, when he was sent to Mexico as the secret agent of the government to aid the Mexicans in their fight against the French under Maximilian. The close of the war had left the country in such an unsettled condition that it was not advisable to risk a war with France over the attempted aggrandizement of Mexican territory by Maximilian, who was backed by Louis Napoleon. Without the knowledge of Secretary Seward, General Wallace was sent by General Grant to consult with General Jaurez, the Mexican President, to see if some way could not be devised whereby the United States could assist Mexico. When General Wallace arrived at Chihuahua he found General Jaurez with few troops and no arms. At the same time every indication pointed to the success of Maximillan. After the consultation between General Wallace and General Juarez the Governor of Tamaulipas was ordered by Juarez to accompany General Wallace back to the United States. In company with Matias Romero, the Mexican Minister to Washington, $5,000,000 worth of Winchester rifles, cannon and other munitions of war were bought and paid for with Mexican government bonds. These were quietly shipped to the mouth of the Rio Grande and passed on to the Mexican troops. From then on the tide turned, and the Mexicans finally conquered.

During the administration of President Hayes General Wallace was appointed Territorial Governor of New Mexico. The Southwest at that time was infested with "bad men," and the severe task was imposed upon General Wallace of bringing order and an obedience of law out of the chaos of terrorism into which the lax enforcement of the laws had thrown that section. After many stormy scenes, in which he was almost constantly in personal danger, General Wallace succeeded in eradicating the "bad men" and restoring the country to a very good semblance of order.

It was during General Wallace's term as Governor of New Mexico that the notorious "bad man," "Billy the Kid," was killed. "Billy the Kid," had been captured a numbers of times and as often escaped. He was known to have killed no less than 21 men.

General Wallace was commander of the Loyal Legion in Indiana for a number of terms. He was also a member of the Grand Army. He was also a member of the commission that tried the assassins of President Lincoln. Practically every epoch of the country's history from the Mexican war to the time when he ended his service as Minister to Turkey has been marked indelibly with the imprint of General Wallace's service.

Danderine

GREW THIS HAIR AND WE CAN PROVE IT.

MISS MARMARA HENRY, 5036 Forrestville Ave., CHICAGO.

Miss Henry says: "Before I began using Danderine my hair was falling out in great handsful, and I am pleased to say that Danderine not only stopped it at once, but has made my hair grow more than twice as long as it ever was."

Mrs. Eloise Atherton, Little Rock, Ark., says: "It is surely remarkable the way Danderine improves the hair. It has made my hair grow ten inches longer in five months and it is getting thicker and longer all the time. I believe in giving praise where it is due, and you can use my name as reference if you so desire."

FLORENCE RUSSELL, Age 6 years, 215 Mohawk Street, CHICAGO.

Since it has become generally known that Danderine causes hair to grow just as abundantly on the heads of children as it does on those of matured persons, many truly marvelous cases are coming to our notice. Little Miss Russell, whose photograph appears above, is certainly one of the remarkable ones. Her beautiful hair is over thirty inches long and her mother says that "DANDERINE GREW EVERY BIT OF IT."

MISS SELMA HASSELL, 2728 North 43d Court, CHICAGO.

Miss Hassel says: "My hair would not reach below my waist when I began using your Danderine. It was also faded and splitting at the ends. Now it is over 3½ feet longer than it ever was and it has regained its original rich blond color. I used the tonic about four months all together."

DANDERINE is to the hair what fresh showers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, invigorates and strengthens them. Its exhilarating, fertilizing and life-producing properties cause the hair to grow abundantly long, strong and beautiful. IT IS THE NATURAL FOOD OF THE HAIR, SCIENTIFICALLY CHARGED WITH NEW AND GENUINE LIFE-PRODUCING ESSENCES UNHEARD OF BY OTHER MAKERS OF HAIR TONIC. NOW at all druggists in three sizes, 25 cents, 50 cents and $1.00 per bottle.

FREE. To show how quickly Danderine acts, we will send a large sample free by return mail to anyone who sends this advertisement to the Knowlton Danderine Co., Chicago, with their name and address and ten cents in silver or stamps to pay postage.

Alexandria Gazette
SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS
AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

THURSDAY EVENING, FEB. 16, 1905.

GENERAL LEW WALLACE, who had been slowly dying for some time from cancer of the stomach, paid the debt of nature at Crawfordsville, Indiana, yesterday. While a prominent man in several callings in life almost since the time he reached his majority, his fame rests upon the production of one of the most interesting and instructive spiritual books that has been written since the appearance of the "Pilgrim's Progress." "Ben Hur" has long since taken its place with Bunyan's chef d'ouvre and a few other writings on the same line which can be counted on one's fingers. The book is elevating, instructive and edifying, and it has attracted the attention of the sage as well as the uncultured muse. Christianity has had many exponents since the scenes on Mount Calvary. Men have viewed the Author of the faith from all standpoints, some critically. After eighteen hundred years, during which period thousands have suffered martyrdom for their loyalty to one they never saw, and book after book, friendly and unfriendly to the Nazarene, has appeared and in time been relegated to the upper shelves, General Wallace sent forth to the world a little volume in which the central figure in this world's history is portrayed in a manner commensurate with His claims, and it has appealed to the intelligent convictions of myriads.

IF THE administration is as hostile to the Standard Oil Company as its friends claimed it was during the late presidential campaign, it now has a fine opportunity to get after the great octopus. The opportunity lies in a resolution, introduced in the House yesterday by Representative Campell, of Kansas, and passed unanimously without even the usual formality of referring it to a committee for consideration, directing the Department of Commerce and Labor to investigate the alleged boycott of the Kansas oil fields by the Standard, and also the unusually large margin between the price of crude oil or petroleum and the selling price of refined oil and its by-products. The object of the resolution, as stated in it, is to have an investigation made by the Department of Commerce and Labor with a view to such legislation or legal proceedings as the facts may warrant. The President will be assured, it is said, that the department will find in Kansas ample evidence to convict the Standard Oil Company of violating both the interstate commerce act and the Sherman anti-trust act.

ACCORDING to William Travers Jerome, a New York reformer, President Roosevelt is more loved than Grant and Lincoln. The President seems to have unhinged some of his satellites during his stay Tuesday on the east side of New York. We are told that during an exciting scene in Ephesus at the beginning of the present era a mob shouted "Great is Diana of the Ephesians" for a space of two hours. At one stage of the distemper over Mr. Roosevelt's appearance on the east side of New York the crowd for some time cried "Teddy as first of everything." Among other things uttered by Mr. Jerome was the following: "President Roosevelt will have a Congress that will be with him next time. They are not with him now, but they will be. The next Congress will be united and will overrule the Senate."

THE American Butter Refining Company, with an authorized capital of $17,000,000, was incorporated at Trenton, N. J., yesterday, the objects of which are to produce and deal in milk, butter and food products and to acquire the business and plants of other incorporations, firms and individuals. This, of course, is a butter trust and means an advance in the price of butter.

In cast of presidential offices, the department will refer inquires to Mr. Howard for action by the full board.

From Washington.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 15.

President Roosevelt this morning wrote an order directing Commissioner Garfield of the Bureau of Corporations to at once investigate the operations of the Standard Oil Company, as called for by a resolution passed by the House of Representatives yesterday. Representative Campbell of Kansas, the author of the resolution, had a long talk with the President this morning, and his representations added to the passage of the resolution by the House, convinced the President of the necessity for immediate governmental action. The inquiry will be begun and pressed as rapidly as possible by Commissioner Garfield, and it may be said will extend from the Kansas field to other large producing localities throughout the couutry where the Standard's manipulations have resulted in the annihilation of competition the impoverishment of small oil dealers, and the corruption of public servants.

President Roosevelt today ordered a special investigation of the Standard Oil Company at the hands of the Bureau of Corporations of the Department of Commerce and Labor, with especial reference to the company's recent operations in Kansas. The order followed a call at the White House by Representative Campbell, of Kansas, who procured yesterday the passage by the House of a resolution providing for such an investigation. President Roosevelt's action is, however, independent of that taken by the House. He is determined that the fullest possible investigation be had of the charges made against the Standard Oil in the Kansas field, and personally wrote to Commissioner of Corporations Garfield this morning, after Mr. Campbell's call, directing him to set the machinery of his office to work at once on the inquiry.

The President today approved the sentence of dismissal from the army given Captain David B. Mulliken, 27th infantry, who was recently tried at Fort Sheridan, Ill., on various serious charges. It was alleged by the authorities of the War Department that while Captain Mulliken had been married to a Filipino woman for the past three years he continually during that time made a false official statement to the War Department by reporting himself as a single man. He was convicted of this charge as well as of the charge of duplication of his pay accounts. In accordance with the President's decision to approve the sentence of dismissal Captain Mulliken will immediately be dropped from the rolls of the army.

United States Minister Bowen at Caracas cabled the State Department today that the Supreme Court of Venezuela has confirmed the order of sequestration in the case of the New York and Bermudez Asphalt Company. This action continues the government receivership of the company and amounts practically to confiscation of its property. It is feared that the decision by the highest tribunal of the country will bring to a head the long standing dispute between Venezuela and the United States.

If he Senate does not pass the Townsend rate bill at this session, the President will call an extra session of Congress in the fall to wrestle with the problem. This announcement was made today by Mr. Townsend after he had a talk with President Roosevelt about the bill in question. "The Senate committee on interstate commerce is about equally divided on the matter," said Mr. Townsend, "but if we can get it reported to the whole body it will pass without any doubt. I am of the opinion that the measure will be reported within a few days for the outlook is apparently brightening."

The Senate in executive session today made public the "protocol of an agreement between the United States and the Dominican Republic, providing for the collection and disbursement by the United States of the customs revenues of the Dominican Republic, signed on February 4, 1905," together with the message of the President, which accompanied its transmission to the Senate yesterday. The protocol is accompanied by a long letter from John B. Moore, giving a full history of the reasons for and the nature of the arbitral award in the case of the Son Domingo Improvement Company. The President in his message says that the conditions in the republic of Santo Domingo have been growing steadily worse for many years, and certain foriegn countries have long felt themselves aggrieved because of the non-payment of debts due their citizens. "The only way," the President says, by which foreign creditors could ever obtain from the republic itself any guaranty of payment, would be either by the acquisition of territory outright, or temporarily, or else by taking possession of the custom houses which would of course, in itself, in effect be taking possession of a certain amount of territory. It has for some time been obvious that those who profit by the Monroe Doctrine must accept certain responsibilities along with the rights which it confers; and that the same statement applies to those who uphold the doctrine. It cannot be too often and too emphatically asserted that the United States has not the slightest desire for territorial aggrandizement at the expense of any of its southern neighbors, and will not treat the Monroe doctrine as an excuse for such aggrandizement on its part. We do not propose to take any part of Santo Domingo or exercise any other control over the island, save what is necessary to its financial rehabilitation in connection with the collection of revenue."

The new treaty with Santo Domingo, made necessary because of the Senate's insistence that any agreement with that country should include among its provisions one to the effect that it shall not go into force until ratified by the American Senate and the Dominican congress, is now before the Senate committee on foreign relations. There is no disposition among the members of the committee to delay action on the treaty because of the controversy which arose between them and President Roosevelt over his failure to consult the Senate with regard to the original Dominican treaty, but the committee will not be hurried in its consideration of a question which practically involves the establishment by the United States of a suzerainty over a foreign country which is almost constantly in the throes of revolution and whose foreign complications from the principal reason for the interference of the United States. It is, therefore, considered very unlikely that the committee will be able in the two weeks yet remaining of the present session to complete its report on the new treaty. It will be able, however, to continue its consideration in the March extra session of the United Srtes Senate, which always follows the inauguration of a new President.

News of the Day.

At the meeting yesterday of the joint inaugural committee of the Senate and House, members of the latter protested against a repetition of the scant courtesy shown the House at the last inauguration.

When the attempt was made to hang Frank Raisinger at Bridgeton, N. J., yesterday, the rope broke and Raisinger dropped to the ground. The fall rendered the man unconscious. His neck was broken.

There there had been stolen from him by a woman, whom he accused in court, one of the 30 pieces of silver which were paid to Judas for his betrayal of the Saviour was asserted by Mark Fisher in the West Side Court of New York yesterday afternoon. In addition to this coin, he said the woman stole many others, the total collection being valued at from $50,000 to $60,000.

The movement to take the control of the Equitable Life Assurance Society from the stockholders and place it with the policyholders is to be taken up by the board of directors in New York today. The claim is made that as one man possesses a majority of stock he has too much power. The general opinion among those present at the meeting today was that the Hyde faction would win out but that after they deposed President Alexander they would announce some plan which would give the policy holders a voice in the affairs of the company.

AGAINST THE NAVY.

Representative Bourke Cockran, of New York, opposed imperialism and the further increase of the navy in a particularly notable and vigorous speech in the House of Representatives yesterday afternoon while general debate was in progress on the naval appropriations bill. His time was repeatedly extended, and during the hour he consumed members of both sides sat as if spellbound under the influence of his oratory. When he ended he was vigorously applauded by republicans as well as democrats.

Mr. Cockran reviewed historic attempts at world mastery and drew a vivid picture of the conquests of the Romans and the imperialism of Bonaparte. As between the record of Napoleon's imperialism, with its dire consequences, he said, and the record of American constitutionalism, he preferred the latter. It was argued by friends of imperialism and a big navy that these were instruments in favor of world peace. The same argument had been put forth during the days of the French Empire, when the motto was, "The Empire is peace," while armies were being raised which, when sufficiently strong, swept over Europe.

The United States had without a large navy risen to eminence among the nations of the world, Mr. Cockran declared. Some thought it time for the United States to enter the family of nations. He thought it preferable for the country to maintain its position of isolation—the isolation of eminence. The true strength of the nation was not to be found in its fortresses of ships, but in the strength and manhood of its men. No nation could make as much out of conquest of other lands as it could out of the development of its own land. The old doctrine, now exploded, was that the true way to prosperity was through the conquest of other lands. This country should stand fast to its traditions, he asserted, and not go ahead in the direction of world conquest, even though it had crossed the threshold in that direction.

Referring to the Venezuelan dispute with England, Mr. Cockran declared that the greatest triumph ever won in the history of the United States was "when Secretary Olney wrote a dispatch affecting the greatest power in the world," when the navy was about one-fifth its present size. Mr. Cockran discounted the efficiency of battleships around Port Arthur, and asserted that it was the mines placed in position by row-boats that laid low vessels of that kind.

Mr. Beal (Texas), in opposing large appropriations for the army and navy, declared that the United States had gone mad over militarism, which was sapping the substance of the people. The government was paying as much attention to "ceremonies, pomp and power" as any government on earth, and he said it was the most extravagant government in the world. There was never a nation that played the bully among other nations of the world, Mr. Beal remarked in that connection, that there was not some other nation ready to engage in a death struggle with it, and he predicted "history will repeat itself with us."

Mr. Perkins (N. Y.) ventured the assertion that no gun or any ship now in commission or on the two battleships proposed by the bill, if they were authorized, would ever fire a hostile shot. He provoked a sharp discussion by declaring that warships disintegrated inside of twenty years.

Mr. Rixey maintained the correctness of Mr. Perkins' position by stating that high naval officers had declared most of the ships now in service to be obsolete and of no account.

The principle of upholding the Monroe doctrine through battleships was declared by Mr. Thayer (Mass.) to be unnecessary, "since," he said, "we are protecting it by the dictum of the gentleman at the other end of the avenue, who don't require any battleships or law whatever to back him up."

The House voted down an amendment offered by Mr. Rixey (Va) striking out the proposed increase of 3,000 men for the navy; also on a point of order by him the provision permitting their immediate enlistment was stricken out.

Newly Born Babe Left in Church Pew.

While Rev. James Sweeney, pastor of the Catholic Church of the Ascension, in One Hundred and Seventh street, near Amsterdam avenue, New York, was celebrating mass yesterday he was distracted by the cries of a child. He sent an altar boy to tell Sexton McDermott to investigate and the latter found deserted in one of the empty pews near the front a baby boy not more than an hour old. The mother, who had given birth to the child in the pew, had disappeared. The infant was removed to the vestry room and the sexton informed the police. Detectives found that in a house in Central Park West a Miss Helen Fitzgerald, 25 years old, a sister of a servant employed there, was in a precarious condition. She admitted to the police that she was the mother of the baby found in the church and was arrested on a charge of abandonment. A physician attending her declared her recovery doubtful.

Virginia News.

William A. Nichols, a native of Londoun county, died at his home, in Belmont, Ohio, Sunday night, aged 78 years.

The new wing of the University of Virginia Hospitel erected at a cost of $35,000, was informally opened yesterday.

Mrs. Sallie H. Downey, widow of Thomas Downer, died Tuesday at her home, near Brook Road, Spottsyvania county, aged 74 years.

Mrs. Mamie E. Lowrey, twenty years old, the wife of Fred Lowrey, of Winchester, died suddenly last night of heart disease. She leaves her husband and one child.

Col. John S. Mosby was a visitor to Richmond yesterday. He called on several old friends there who were members of his command during the civil war.

Seized with apoplexy, Mrs. William Tobin, wife of a prominent farmer of Retuge in Frederick county, fell over dead Tuesday night at the supper table. She was 51 years old.

Philip B. Campbell, son of R. Kenna Campbell, of Bedford county, has been designated for examination for an assistant naval paymastership. He is at present employed in a Norfolk bank.

Marriage licenses were issued in Washington yesterday to Matthew E. Ball and Mary E. Etcher, both of Leesburg, and to John W. McCary, of Harrisonburg, and Anna Rhinehart, of New Market.

In the Circuit Court of Northumberland county at Heathsville yesterday Jas. Thomas was fined $400 for violation of the local option law. He was required to give a bond of $1,000 not to commit the offense again in that country.

At a largely attended meeting of gentlemen interested in the protection of game in the State, at the Mechanics' Institute in Richmond last night, there were substantial results, and an organization was duly formed, calculated to make it warm for persons who break the game laws.

Senator Martin yesterday introduced bills in the Senate providing for the settlement of several civil war claims in Virginia, as follows: George W. Fry, Loudoun county, $1,875; Richard M. Harrison, deceased, Prince George county, $6,450; Luther H. Potterfield, Loudoun county, $2,500.

Messrs. Davis & Davis, Washington patent attorneys, report the grant this week, to citizens of this State, of the following patents: Basset M. Coffee, of Richmond, assignor of one-fourth to Wm. J. Whitehurst, for a variable-speed gearing; Louis A. Scholz, or Roanoke, for a bowling-alley or game apparatus (two patents).

Mr. Graham F. Blandy, of New York, has just closed a deal by which he becomes the owner of the remainder of the Boyce tract of land in Clarke county. Mr. Blandy some time ago purchased the "Tuleyries" mansion and a large tract of land, and the present purchase gives him a title to the entire tract, which comprises 688 acres.

Relations between Gov. White and the West Virginia Senate were strained to the breaking point yesterday and last night remained at the highest tension. The governor sent a message to the Senate containing charges against Senator Caldwell, of Parkersburg, in connection with the osteopathy bill and the Senate refused to receive the message and sent it back to the governor, who received it with an outburst of passion.

The Travelers' Insurance Company of Hartford will refuse to pay a policy of $10,000 on the life of J. Samuel McCue, who was hanged last Friday at Charlottesville, and will contest any suit brought against it. The defense will be that the contract did not contemplate any such contingency as a legal hanging, and that it would be against public policy to pay the face of the policy since the paying of life insurance under such circumstances might tend to increase crime.

Mildred Shields, the three-year-old daughter of George J. Shields, died in Roanoke yesterday as the result of skull fracture inflicted a year ago by Henry Williams, the negro who assaulted Mrs. Shields and her child in that city when he cut Mrs. Shields' throat from ear to ear and hacked her head with a hatchet and locked her in a closet. He dealt Mildred several blows on the head and kicked her against a hot stove. The mother recovered. Williams was hanged for the crime.

Woman Assaulted.

William Oakes, a white railroad section man, yesterday afternoon entered the home of William Thomas, a Baltimore and Ohio Railroad engineer, at Cameron, W. Va., and asked for something to eat. Mrs. Thomas furnished him with a meal. He returned her hospitality by an attempt to assault her. A desperate struggle followed. Mrs. Thomas screamed, and her husband, who was sleeping upstairs, rushed down. Seizing a chair, he brought it down on Oakes' head fiercely, and beat him senseless. Neighbors rushing in, prevented him from killing the stranger on the spot. Mrs. Thomas's back was sprained, one arm was broken, and she was scratched and bruised in a dozen places. She is a frail woman, and is on the verge of nervous collapse. The town marshal and deputies hurriedly rushed Oakes to the county seat, Moundsville, to escape a threatened lynching. Oakes, who is in a half dying condition, came from Virginia a few weeks ago. He had been drinking. Previously he entered the home of John Reese, and Mrs. Reese frightened him by threatening to call her husband. When Mrs. Thomas made a similar threat, he said he could not be bluffed twice that way. Previously he chased a crowd of school girls. Feeling in Cameron against him is intense.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

Suicides.

Boston, Feb. 16.—By maintaining utmost secrecy friends and relatives of Charles J. Bacon, the well known Back Bay society man and member of the Puritan Club and of several leading New York firms, succeeded in keeping his suicide a secret until last night, although he ended his life Monday morning. In his fashionably furnished apartments at the Brimmer Chamber on Pinckney street Bacon was found lying lifeless across his bed. The medical examiner declares that death was due to cyanide of potassum poisoning self administered.

Boston, Feb. 16.—Charles M. Philli s a well known judge of the light harness road horse, and a familiar character in sporting circles committed suicide by inhaling illuminating gas, in his apartments yesterday. His relatives say the man had been worried by financial troubles and that he probably became despondent, and, in a mentally deranged moment, took his life.

Boston, Feb. 16.—The enigma of the identity of the young gentleman who was found dead Tuesday in his apartments at the Hotel Touraine, presumably after taking his own life, has been solved and it is known that the dead man is Hiram McCollom, of Lockport, N. Y., who was president of the third year medical class at the Georgetown University, Washington, D. C., and a clerk in the War Department. Although the young man had cleverly obliterated every possible mark on his belongings, which might betray his identity, the police examinating his shoes discovered a secret trade mark and symbols showing his shoes were made by a Brockton, Mass., firm. From this clue, his identity was established. Though the suicide is identified, the mystery is only deepened. No motive is known for the act.

Mexican Troops and Indians Fight

Galveston, Tex., Feb. 16.—A report from Hermosillo tells of a terrible fight between Mexican troops and a band of Yaqui Indians in the Mazatlan mountains. It was the first real fight of the war which has been waged by the Mexican authorities with General Torres at the the head of five hundred soldiers. The band of Yaquis had become separated from the main body and it is said a score or more were killed by the troops, with many wounded. The casualties suffered by the troops were few. General Torres reports the sufferings of his troops as terrible and many of them down with a peculiar malady believed to be poisoning from drinking water poisoned by the Yaquis. Their trail is hotly pursued by Torres' men. Twenty horses have died from drinking from poisoned mountain streams and the soldiers have gone for days without water, rather than chance touching the poisoned springs.

Explosion on Submarine Boat.

Queenstown, Feb. 16.—An explosion occurred this morning on the British submarine boat known as A 5, which was in this harbor. It is reported that six of those on board were killed. The report has not been confirmed. It was stated later that after the first explosion a rescue party was sent aboard, when a second explosion injured some of the rescuers. The dead and injured were shockingly multilated. Several of the injured have been removed to the hospital. The explosion occurred while officers were filling gasoline tanks. The second explosion occurred as a party of eleven rescuers were bringing up the dead and injured from the hold. The original crew of the submarine numbered ten. The total casualties, including those among the rescuers, are said to have been twenty. The submarine is now on fire.

Explosion.

New York, Feb. 16.—The explosion of two big vats of boiling sulphur in the Brooklyn Sulphur Works, on Kent avenue and Ross street today, four men were seriously injured and six others less seriously burned. The building was wrecked. The explosion was caused by a spark thrown from a grinder where a nail was caught in the machinery. The first explosion threw the boiling stuff over the men drenching them from their heads to their feet. The second explosion blew out the entire end of the building. There were forty men at work in the factory at the time, and many of them were slightly burned or suffered from inhaling sulphur fumes.

New Spanish Navy.

Madrid, Feb. 16.—The Minister of Marine, Senor Cobian, has prepared a scheme for the construction of eight iron clads, ten first class cruisers, and fifty smaller vessels, at a const of 500,000,000 pesetas. The scheme will be presented in the chamber shortly. The work on the new vessels will be divided between Spanish, English, and Italian contractors. The plan for construction of a practically new navy for Spain has been considered for some months past. About six months ago King Alfonso took up the plan and, as the result of his majesty's urgency, the scheme will be pushed with all celerity possible.

Jury Discharged

Philadelphia, Feb. 16.—The jury in the case of Henry Lear, former president of the Doylestown National Bank, charged with the embezzlement or misapplication of $60,000 of the bank's funds, disagreed and were discharged today by Judge McPherson in the United States District Court. After three days unsuccessful deliberation the jurymen are said to have stood 10 for conviction and 2 for acquittal. There were 150 separate charges against Lear. This was his second trial, the first resulting in a disagreement of the jury.

Burning of a Hotel.

Urichsville, O., Feb. 16.—Fire broke out in the Flushing House, the largest hotel in Flushing, south of here, before noon today. At noon the fire was still burning and beyond control. Webster's drug store was then burning and the entire block in which the hotel is located seemed doomed. The water supply is inadequate. The loss will be heavy.

Fifty-Eighth Congress.

Washington, Feb. 16.

SENATE.

When the Senate met today the President pro tem. announced the receipt of an invitation to the opening of the Lewis & Clark exposition at Portland, Oregon, June 1st, 1905.

A resolution authorizing the committee on printing to sit during the recess to investigate the printing of public document, was agreed to.

The doors were then, at 12:20 o'clock, closed for the consideration of legislature business.

Upon the reopening of the doors the Swayne impeachment case was resumed.

HOUSE.

Yesterday the House had no chaplain. Today, when it met at 11 a. m. it had no speaker. Clerk McDowell called the assemblage of some forty statesmen to order, and called for nominations for acting speaker.

Mr. Payne nominated Mr. Dalzell who took the chair, amid applause.

Speaker Cannon made his belated appearance just as the acting chaplain, Rabbi Simon, of Washington, pronounced his "amen."

The burst of applause following Speaker Cannon's appearance came with such promptness that it seemed to be intended for the chaplain, who looked about in some surprise.

The conference report on the omnibus claims bill was agreed to. The bill carries $2,821,810, allowing a total of 1,759 claims.

The largest allowance is $1,197,272 for 946 claims under the Bowman and Tucker act; $752,660 in the case of 529 French spoliation claims, and $371,871 for 199 miscellaneous claims.

The Mann canal zone government bill, giving the President absolute power over the canal strip, for two years, from March 4, was read for amendment. The bill abolishes the present Isthmian Canal Commission, authorizes the President to appoint such aides as he may desire, and provides for the acquisition by the United States by comdemnation process, of the bonds of the Panama Railroad Company now held by outsiders.

A bill was passed opening to settlement the Wind River Indian reservation, Wyoming. Also a bill extending the tariff duties to goods coming into the United States by way of the canal zone. Mr. Payne offered this privileged resolution, the reading of which evoked general applause:

"Resolved, That the amendment numbered 208, added by the Senate to the House bill, making appropriations for the Department of Agriculture, in the opinion of the House contravenes the first clause of the seventh section of the first article of the constitution of the United States and is an infringement of the privileges of this House, and that the said bill, with the amendments, be respectfully returned to the Senate with a message communicating this resolution."

Mr. Payne moved that the agricultural bill be returned to the Senate without action with a copy of the foregoing resolution attached.

He explained that the amendment adopted by the Senate abolishes the drawback on wheat, an act violating the constitutional injunction that all bills to raise revenue shall originate in the House of Representatives.

"I don't care to discuss the merits of the amendment," said Mr. Payne, "whether it is wise or otherwise. The principal question is whether or not our constitutional prerogatives are to be cherished and whether we will resent the infringement of the same, no matter from what source they come."

Mr. Payne then cited former instances of attempted encroachment of the constitutional right of the House and showed how they had invariably been thwarted.

"Our precessors have held inviolate," declared Mr. Payne, "the right to originate revenue legislation. Its the sacred right that is left to us. It cannot and will not be taken from us if the House stands by its privileges."

Mr Williams, of Mississippi, the democratic floor leader, said that a peculiar condition existed in that the Senate was in revolt against the executive on the grounds that its powers had been usurped and its dignity attacked and yet was now making a plain, palpable and obvious attack upon the dignity of the House. I'ts a theory that the House is coordinate with the Senate. Owing to non action and mis-action, the constitutional declaration has ceased to be fact.

He heartily endorsed the Payne resolution. "Let's have so much as is left of the dignity and the co ordinate equality of this body" he said.

The House by a record vote of 261 to 5 passed the resolution offered by Mr. Payne.

New York Stock Market.

New York, Feb. 16.—Another strong market was witnessed this morning, but on a less active scale. Speculation was due largely to a continued satisfactory and promising development in the foreign markets, foreshadowing continued ease in international money rates. The failure announced at the Stock Exchange at the opening was not regarded as likely to have any important influence. In the railroad list resumed buying for long account advanced prices in a few instances, but elsewhere in the standard railway shares improvements were not important.

DIED.

Departed this life on Wednesday, February 15, at 6:20 p. m., at his home, 1106 Prince street, WALKER GILMER WEADON, in the 58th year of his age. Funeral notice hereafter.—[Baltimore and Washington papers please copy.

WEDDINGS.

Mr. J. C. Gordon and Miss Lula Conway Marshall, daughter of Mr. A. L. Marshall, both of Spottsylvania county, were married a few days ago at the home of the bride, Rev. E. P. Hawkins officiating.

At the Cedars, the home of the bride's mother, near Cambridge, Md., yesterday, Mrs. Ethel de Mitkiewicz, daughter of Mrs. Charles Wells Small and widow of Count de Mitkiewicz, was married to Dr. Arthur L. Holland, of New York.

Miss May Mason, daughter of Mr. James M. Mason, and Mr. Philip Speed, of New York, were married yesterday evening in Zion Episcopal Church at Charlestown, W. Va., by Rev. John S. Alfriend, assisted by Bishop W. L. Gravatt. The bride is a granddaughter of the late United States Senator Mason, of Virginia. The groom is a native of Louisville, Ky., and is at present on the staff of the New York World. They will reside in New York.

Miss Annie Fitzhugh Lee, daughter of Gen. Fitzhugh Lee, and Lieut. Lewis Brown, jr., of the Seventh United States Cavalry, were married at 6 o'clock yesterday evening in St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Norfolk. The ceremony was performed by Bishop Alfred M. Randolph, assisted by Rev. Beverly D. Tucker, pastor of the church. Miss Lee was given away by her father. She was dressed in a white lace robe, with ruffles of lace and chiffon, and wore a tulle veil, caught with gardenias and a diamond spray. She carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley. Miss Virginia Lee, sister of the bride and the maid of honor, wore a gown of yellow crepe de chine, a wreath of flowers in her hair and carried a bouquet of daffodils. The bridesmaids all wore gowns of white silk mulle and girdles of yellow chiffon velvet, with short tulle veils, and carried jonquils. They were Miss Cornelia Knox, of Washington; Miss Margaret Rosser, of Charlottesville; Miss Bettie Cocke, of Charlottesville; Miss Emily Addison, of Richmond; Miss Betty Christian, of Richmond, and Miss Edmonia Lee, of Fredericksburg, a cousin of the bride. The ushers were from the troop of the groom, the Seventh cavalry. They were Lieuts. John Montgomery, Thomas Jennings, Archibald Comeskey, James Shannon and Wynn Blair. Lieut. Robert C. Fay, of the First cavalry, was the best man. A reception was held after the ceremony at the residence of Col. Walter H. Taylor, who loaned his house for the occasion, as the Lees are not housekeeping in Norfolk now. The bride and groom left for Chickamagua, Tenn., where Lieutenant Brown is stationed, but will soon go to the Philippines. Among the wedding gifts was a box of flowers sent by President Roosevelt.

Failure.

New York Feb. 16.—The failure of Ellingwood and Cunningham, stock brokers, was announced on the Stock Exchange this morning. It was known after the exchange closed last night that the firm was in difficulties, and an assignment was foreshadowed when the firm was unable to borrow stock to meet their short sales. It was reported this morning that the firm had been caught short of a large line of Union Pacific. A false bear tip on Union Pacific is said to have been the cause of the firm's undoing. The tip, it was said, was given intentionally, as the firm was supposed to have done something which displeased certain financial interests. The firm's accounts went through the Clearing House yesterday, all right, but it is understood that there was delay over some of its checks, which caused leaders of stocks in the loan crowd to refuse to lend stocks needed to make good deliveries. The firm has been doing business for ten years. Mr. C. S. Ellingwood has been made assignee because he knew the business and was a friend of the firm's members. He explained that when he withdrew three years ago he permitted the remaining partners to use his name, but that he had no financial interest in the firm.

Blow t Standard Oil.

As anticipated in the Gazette, a bill providing for the establishment of a State oil refinery was passed by the Kansas House of Representatives yesterday by a vote of 91 to 30. The bill had previously passed the Senate. Governor Hoch will sign the bill at once.

Under its provisions, a refinery will be erected at Peru, Kansas. Another penitentiary will be built there to provide convict labor for the refinery. An appropriation of $410,000 is made for building and maintaining the refinery and penitentiary.

As a special order of business the House in committee of the whole had previously considered the bill passed by the Senate, fixing a maximum railroad freight rate for the transportation of crude oil and the bill preventing discrimination between localities in securing any commodity in general use. The bill fixing maximum freight rates was recommended to the House and later passed just as it came from the Senate, but the enemies of the anti-discrimination measure succeeded, after a hard fight, in referring that bill to the judiciary committee.

The latter committee is ordered to report on the constitutionality of the measure, and it has been set for consideration Friday.

Protest from Czar.

St. Petersburg, Feb. 16.—The Russian consul at Pekin complains that the Japanese are compelling the Russians to leave Port Arthur without their property and that many of the Russian sick and wounded who have been detained at Port Arthur, have died because of the unsanitary condition of the town. The Czar has made a protest through France.

TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES.

For the first time in the history of leprosy cases in the United States, and probably in the world, physicians at New Orleans say a leper has been discharged as permanently cured from the Louisians leper's camp near there. Opera House.

"The Lighthouse Tragedy," a comedy-drama, was presented by the Tempest Dramatic Company at the Opera House last night before a small-sized audience. The drama was the best piece of the week and was presented in a manner creditable to any company. The reading of the lines of the play was first-class and without a pause. This company is one of the best that has ever played here, and deserves good patronage. The specialty, "The First Rehearsal," by H. L. Sperry and Elizabeth Ray, was heartily enjoyed. Tonight the company will present the military comedy-drama, "Red, White and Blue," a play dealing with the Spanish-American war. As will be seen by the advertisement elsewhere, the lower floor, for tonight only, will be 20c, reserved seats to be sold first. Tomorrow night will be "amateur night;" three prizes to be given to the best amateur act. The entries in the contest will close at 7 o'clock tomorrow night.

Another Cold Wave.

The temperature yesterday morning became mild, but as noon approached the northwest wind blew strong and cold and by night the blasts were sharp and the flaws roared at short intervals. The mercury kept sinking until the cold became so pronounced that the streets were almost deserted. The wind, however, had diminished considerably before midnight, but the cold was as intense as ever, and the mercury at 7 o'clock this morning stood at 9°. It was, however, several degrees lower during the night. Conditions became pleasant later in the day. The weather forecaster says another frigid wave is in transitu. At 3 o'clock this evening the mercury stood at 27°.

Death of Mr. Weadon.

Mr. Walker G. Weadon, a well-known and esteemed citizen, died at his home on Prince street, between Henry and Fayette, early last night. The deceased was in his 58th year. He leaves a widow and two children. Mr. Weaden had been a sufferer from a pulmonary complaint for a long time. He was a son of the late F. M. Weadon, and was an upholsterer by trade. In by-gone days he was an employee in the furniture factory of the late James Green. The deceased was a member of the M. E. Church South and from his boyhood days an active member of the old Hydraulion Fire Company.

New Choir.

The choir of the Jewish Synagogue has recently been reorganized and augmented by several new singers, and, under the able direction of Mrs. Charles G. Lennon, will no doubt in a short time be one of the leading musical organizations of its kind in the city. The personnel of the choir is as follows: Soprano, Miss Florence Eichberg, Mrs. Herman Friedlander and Mrs. Frank Blondheim; altos, Mrs. Mary Grimes and Miss Ethel Grimes; tenor, Mr. Frank Boyer; basso, Mr. Wm. L. Hoy; organist and director, Mrs. Charles G Lennon.

Disorderly Washingtonians.

Charles Bradley, John F. Sullivan, Joseph Nall, Frank Murtell, Lillian Sour, Lillian Johnson and Virginia Bain were turned over to Officers Roberts and Allen by Conductor Kerrick, of the electric railway, late yesterday afternoon, charged with disorderly and unseemly conduct on a south bound train. The accused were later brought before Justice Caton who collected $35 from the party in fines. Murtell seemed to be the treasurer of the group, as he produced the wherewithal. The men and women live in Washington.

Police Court.

There was no session of the Police Court this morning. A colored boy named Frank Doman was arrested yesterday by Officers Allen and Beach charged with having a pistol in his possession. The boy was attempting to sell the weapon, which was unloaded, to a second-hand dealer. He stated that he purchased the pistol last Christmas. He was released to appear this morning and when Justice Caton heared his statement he released him.

The River.

The ice in the river was rendered more solid last night by the cold wave, and early this morning the track made by steamers yesterday had frozen firm enough to bear a man's weight. The transfer tugboat Major Brewerton started out between 8 and 9 o'clock to break a track to Shepherd's, but the work proved very slow and tedious. The Brewerton forged ahead a short distance, when she was brought to a complete standstill. She backed about half a square and ran against the solid cakes with all her power. A grating and roaring sound followed, and after having forged ahead a few yards the tugboat was again brought to a full stop. This performance was repeated over and over again for hours.

The steamer Washington from Norfolk had not arrived at 4 o'clock this afternoon.

A dispatch from Warsaw, Westmoreland county, says. The steamer Anne Arundel, which left Baltimore Tuesday at 7 a. m., reached Kinsale last night after a rough voyage. The steamer Middlesex, which reached Wellford yesterday afternoon, met with a like experience. Tappahannock could not be reached, owing to heavy ice. It is doubtful if either steamer will be able to proceed farther till the weather moderates.

Quarterly Conference.

The quarterly conference of the Washington street, M. E. Church South was held last night. It was the last official meeting and was presided over by Rev. Dr. J. W. Duffy, whose term expires by limitation at the Baltimore Conference which meets in Winchester, March 22. A resolution of confidence and vesteem for Dr. Duffy was pessed. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Superintendent of Washington street Sunday School, James E. Alexander; Superintent of Village Chapel, F. J. Pollard; Stewards, Henry K. Field, J. E. Alexander, G. W. Keys, E. C. Graham, W. W. Sherwood, Jno. P. Robinson, J. G. Graham, J. G. Cockey, T. H. Netherland. J. T. Wilkins, S. E. Lindsey, F. J. Pollard, W. G. Plaskett, J. F. Myers, Geo. E. Warfield, J. B. Watkins, W. T. Wilkins, Alvin Powell, C. E. Outcalt and Samuel R. Catts.

Habeas Corpus Proceedings.

Judge Barley had before him this morning the habeas corpus case of Harvey L. Allen, who sued his wife for the possession of his two-year old daughter, now in custody of the child's mother and grandmother, Mrs. Dean. Mr. and Mrs. Allen separated some time since. After hearing evidence in the case, Judge Barley declined to give the child to its father but remanded it to the custody of its mother and grandmother, granting the father the privilege, however, of seeing his child during any reasonable hours.

Personal.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis James Pollard have issued cards for the marriage of their daughter, Miss Mary Wallace Pollard, and Dr. Arthur Barton Crane of Washington. The ceremony will take place at 8 o'clock Tuesday, February 28, in the Methodist Episcopal Church South.

Mrs. Frank G. Bell, of Savannah, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William H. Lambert.

Mrs. Park Agnew, who has been quite ill for some time, continues to improve.

Death of Mr. Pack.

Mrs. M. E. Gilmore, of this city, received a telegram announcing the death of her son-in-law, Mr. John H. Pack, which occurred at an early hour this morning at his home in Roanoke, Va. Mrs. Gilmore left immediately for that place.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Rev. P. P. Phillips, of St. Paul's Church, will conduct the prayer meeting tonight at the Children's Home.

People living in the vicinity of the Southern Railway depot are again complaining of excessive whistle blowing in the night time.

The beautiful white silk banner, made by Mrs. L. W. Huffman for the W. C. T. U., was sent to this office this morning for exhibition and was greatly admired by all who saw it.

There was no meeting of the Board of Police Commissioners last night. Only two members—Messrs. Hill and Lawler—answered the summons. Mayor Paff and Commissioner Fisher were out of the city.

CONGRESSIONAL.

The Senate yesterday continued, but did not conclude, consideration of the bill making appropriations for the support of the government of the District of Columbia. While the bill was before the Senate, Mr. Elkins took exception to an item for the construction of a local bridge as in the interest of speculators, and made a general plea for economy in the matter of appropriations. The Swayne impeachment trial held the attention of the Senate for two hours.

The question of what the policy of the government should be with respect to the upbuilding of the navy was again thrashed out in the House during the consideration of the naval appropriation bill, the debate developing much opposition to the proposed addition of two battleships to the naval establishment. As on Tuesday, the defense of the Philippines played an important part in the discussion, while the events of the war in the far East from a naval point of view were given prominence by the advocates of an increased navy.

Interchange of Local and Commutation Tickets between the B., F. & P. and Washington-Southern Railway and Southern Railway between Alexandria and Washington.

Beginning next Sunday, February 19th, an arrangement has been made whereby local tickets between Washington and Alexandria and all classes of commutation tickets between same points will be good on any of the trains of the Southern Railway carrying coaches and on any of the trains of the Washington-Southern Railway carrying coaches, tickets being interchangeable on either line as above.

MASONIC.

The Grand Lodge of Masons of Virginia is in session in Richmond. As stated yesterday in the reports of the grand officers were presented Tuesday evening. These reports, which were the subjects of committee attention yesterday, show that Masonry was never more prosperous in old Virginia than now. Eleven new lodges are now working under dispensation, and all of them, having fulfilled the requirements, are applicants for charters at this session. The increase in membership for the past year has been 879 in the State. The first business of yesterday evening's session was the election of officers for the ensuing year, and it being what the politicians would call an "off-year," the old officers were re-elected as follows:

Grand Master, Thomas N. Davis of Lynchburg; Deputy Grand Master, Kosciosko Kemper, of Alexandria; Grand Senior Warden, S. J. Quinn, of Fredericksburg; Grand Junior Warden, D. J. W. Eggleston, of Richmond; Grand Treasurer, J. Fred Pleasants, of Richmond; Grand Secretary, George W. Carrington, of Richmond; Grand Senior Deacon John W. Kellam, of Accomac county; Grand Junior Deacon, W. D. McChesny, of Staunton.

The committee on appropriations recommended that the State be divided into six districts instead of four, as now, and the number of lecturers, in addition to the grand lecturer, be increased to six. The finance committee having already arranged for the increased expense, the recommendation of the committee was adopted.

A gavel, made from wood of the old Virginia State Capitol, was given the lodge by the register of the land office, and presented through Pastmaster R. T. W. Duke.

[COMMUNICATED.

Police and City Fathers.

In the report of the proceedings of Council as published in last night's Gazette, I see that one of our honorable "City Fathers" felt called upon to make a few remarks concerning the consistent absence of a policeman when he is wanted. Perhaps this is the case when that "Father" wishes to have the law enforced against the electric railway or some individual who is guilty of the flagrant violation of a penal statute. But would his remarks have been the same if one of those habitually scarce gentlemen with brass buttons had hauled that "City Father" into the Police Court for allowing two inches of ice to remain for three weeks upon the Columbus street sidewalk adjoining his store? The ice has been there, is there, and persistently refuses to vacate of its own accord. Methinks he would have introduced an ordinance to reduce the force. It is the old, old story—a policeman will be damned if he does, and be damned if he don't.

A LONELY FRIEND TO THE FORCE.

Oh, my! One of our councilmen observes a similarity in the loitering gait of a policeman and the proud strut of a turkey. Remarkable indeed! How can he notice this resemblance when the concensus of opinion is that our policemen never walk around? Do you know, sir, that we have but one officer for each ward, whose duty is to spread himself simultaneously over seventy blocks, or one hundred and forty acres of municipal territory? I would like to hear this city governor charge an officer as to his duties. It would be something on this order: "Mr. Officer, your beat comprises the territory west of Washington street and south of King street, only sixty blocks. Therein you must keep perfect order. Much complaint has arisen from rowdyism attendant upon the opening and closing of the public schools. You must suppress this—be near the building at all times. Do not go from King street, except on rare occasions as the electric railway must always be considered a suspicious character and closely watched for violations of the law. Meet all trains at the Southern depot—be there at their coming and going. Also pay close attention to the localities around Stone Bridge—much disorder there. By no means neglect the freight yards for a moment—stop that thieving. Keep an eye on the several gambling dens and carefully prepare for raids. Listen attentively to complaints of citizens, though the so doing may occupy an hour's time. But don't stay in one place more than five minutes. See that there is no disorder in barrooms, but don't enter, for temptation lurks therein. These are a few of your duties—only a few. And discharge awaits those who attempt to warm themselves by any fire. These duties faithfully performed every other eight-hours, night and day, hot and cold, will entitle you to fifty dollars per month! Be ye faithful! POLICEMAN'S FRIEND.

[Are there really two friends of the police?]

is often caused by sores, ulcers and cancers, that eat away your skin. Wm. Bedell, of Flat Rock, Mich., says: "I have used Bucklen's Arnica Salve for Ulcers, Sores and Cancers. It is the best healing dressing I ever found." Soothes and heals cuts, burns and scalds. 25c at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store; guaranteed.

Nothing Equals Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

Dr. P. B. Spears, of Pinchard, Ala, has become acquainted with the good qualities of Chamberlain's Colic Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and uses it in his own family and in his practice. He says: "It beats any preparation I have ever seen for all bowel complaints, I do not think of recommending any other, and also use it with my own children." This remedy is for sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

The Sunshine of Spring.

The Salve that cures without a scar is DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. Cuts, Burns, Boils, Bruises and piles disappear before the use of this salve as snow before the sunshine of spring. Miss H. M. Middleton, Thebes, Ill. says; "I was seriously afflicted with a fever sore that was very painful. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cured me in less than a week." Get the genuine. Sold by all druggists.

NOTICE.

I will have small change at my store on King street, on Saturday morning between 10 and 12 o'clock, for the convenience of the public. B. BAER, Jr.

THE PROPER COFFEE

PURE, UNIFORM, DELICIOUS AND HEALTHFUL. . . .

For several months past the Southern Coffee & Spice Company, of Washington, has been supplying many of the grocers of Alexandria with coffee, teas and spices.

This company has now decided to place its popular blends, "BOW KNOT" Coffee in one pound tins and "SOUTHRON LEADER" in one pound packages on the market here.

The "Bow Knot" M. & J. Blend, to introduce, will be sold at 30 cents per pound and is the best procurable, and superior to the average 35 cent or 40 cent coffee, designed for high class trade.

The "Southron Leader" is a popular premier coffee sold at 20 cents per pound, equal to the ordinary 25 cent coffee.

Ten coupons returned to the grocer secures one pound of this coffee free.

Ask your grocer for these coffees and be convinced. feb11

The Consumers' Store

Is now stocked with the best line of FRUITS, VEGETABLES AND DAIRY PRODUCTS procurable. We direct your attention to our T. C. King, Sheep Nose, Spy Apples and California Navel Oranges, which are especially fine specimens. We have recently unloaded a car of this fruit and before advertising it we have sold some of it to our best trade, and have been complimented on having such delicious apples and oranges. This store has sold an enormous quantity of apples by the barrel, especially to the consumers to whom we cater; now we wish to sell you oranges by the box, oranges which will keep and are sweet, juicy and lower priced than anywhere else.

Plenty of Baldwin Apples here at $2.25 per barrel; 30c peck.

NOTICE—At a Corporation Court for the city of Alexandria, held on the 1st day of February, 1905, at the courthouse of said city:

George A. Smith, complainant, vs. The Alexandria Shoe Manufacturing Company, incorporated, defendant. In chancery and attachment.

EXTRACT FROM DECREE:

It is further adjudged, ordered and decreed that this cause be and the same is hereby referred to Robinson Moncure, esq., as a special commissioner, who shall state and report to the court on account of all liens upon the property and estate of the defendant corporation with their priorities, and also an account of all the indebtedness of said corporation of what kind soever, to whom due and payable and in what amounts.

It is further adjudged, ordered and decreed that the said special commissioner may give notice of the time and place of taking the accounts herein before ordered by publication once a week for four successive weeks in the Alexandria Gazette, a convenient newspaper, which is published and printed in the city of Alexandria, Virginia, and that such publication shall be equivalent to personal service of such notice on the parties to this cause.

Law Office of Robinson Moncure,
Alexandria, Va., (over Alex. Nat'l Bank)
8th day of February, 1905.

The parties interested in the decree, from which the foregoing is an extract, will take notice that, on the 11th day of March, 1905, at my office, at 10 o'clock a. m., in the city of Alexandria, Va., I shall proceed to execute the same when and where they are required to attend with such books, papers, vouchers and evidence as will enable me to comply with the order of the court.

The Willard Statue.

A Senate precedent was shattered last week when a woman—for the first time—appeared before that body while it was in session and testified in the Swayne impeachment trial. Another was broken when the statue of a woman, that of the late Miss Frances E. Willard, was set in position in Statuary Hall, where it will remain with the 33 other statues of distinguished Americans already contributed to the government by the States under the act of of Congress allowing each State to send two statues to the Capitol to be erected in Statuary Hall.

The Willard statue arrived in Washington Tuesday night and the two huge boxes containing the gift and its pedestal were hauled by means of windlasses up the eastern stairway of the Capitol yesterday morning and moved into Statuary Hall. The statue, which was modeled by a woman sculptor, has not been unpacked, but the base was disclosed to public view late yesterday afternoon and placed in position near the entrance to Congressman Wachter's committee room. It will stand between the famous old Houdon statue of George Washington and the bronze statue of John Hanson, a signer of the Declaration of Independence, donated by the State of Maryland, with a statue of Charles Carroll of Carrollton.

The statue will be unveiled tomorrow afternoon, when appropriate exercise will be conducted in the Senate and House of Representative in connection with the formal acceptance of the gift. The base of the statue is a splendid cube of white marble, on which is carved an entwining freeze of ivy leaves.

The Estimated Deficit

The deficiencies estimated by Secretary Shaw in each department for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1905, are as follows: legislative, $20,000; State Department, $105,426.39; Treasury Department, $3,757,780.61; District of Columbia, $122,088.06; War Department, $1,916,969.39; Navy Department, $15,071,284.13; Interior Department, $4,784,058.76; Agriculture, $8,567.60; Commerce and Labor, $57,742.84; Department of Justice, $575,819.32; Postoffice Department, $23,000,000. Total, $49,364,778.10.

Public is Aroused.

The public is aroused to a knowledge of the curative merits of that great medicinal tonic, Electric Bitters, for sick stomach; liver and kidneys. Mary H. Walters, of 546 St. Clair Ave., Columbus, O., writes: "For several months I was given up to die. I had fever and ague, my nerves were wrecked; I could not sleep, and my stomach was so weak, from useless doctors' drugs, that I could not eat. Soon after beginning to take Electric Bitters I obtained relief, and in a short time I was entirely cured." Guaranteed at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store; price 50c.

FOR OVER SIXTY YEARS

AN OLD AND WELL-TRIED REMEDY.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over sixty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic and is the best remedy for Diarrhœa. Is pleasant to the taste. Sold by druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Its value is incalculable. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup and take no other kind.

That Tickling in the Throat.

One minute after taking One Minute Cough Cure that tickling in the throat is gone. It acts in the throat—not the stomach. Harmless—Good for children. Sold by all druggists.

There is one rational way to treat nasal catarrh: the medicine is applied direct to the affected membrane. The remedy is Ely's Cream Balm. It restores the inflammed tissues to a healthy state without drying all the life out of them and it gives back the lost senses of taste and smell. The sufferer who is tried of vain experiments should use Cream Balm. Druggists sell it for 50 cts. Ely Brothers, 56 Warren street, New York, will mail it.

Perfect Confidence.

Where there used to be a feeling of uneasiness and worry in the household when a child showed symptoms of croup, there is now perfect confidence. This is owing to the uniform success of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in the treatment of that disease. Mrs. M. I. Basford, of Poolesville, Md., in speaking of her experience in the use of that remedy says: "I have a world of confidence in Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for I have used it with perfect success. My child Garland is subject to severe attacks of croup and it always gives him prompt relief." For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

New York Tribune Farmer

The Tribune Farmer has no superior anywhere as a publication for farmers and their families. Everything worth knowing about the theory or practice of farming is treated by men recognized as experts in their various lines. It keeps the farmer in touch with all the latest improvement by text and pictures, and pays special attention to the work being done at agricultural colleges all over the country. Besides all this it has features to interest the women folk. The price is $1 a year. For a free sample copy send a postal card to the New-York Tribune, New-York.

N. Y, Tri-Weekly Tribune

For those who want to get the New York news and news of things the world over and don't want to spend the money or time in buying and reading a meropolitan paper seven days in the week The Tri-Weekly Tribune fills the bill. It is issued on Monday, Wednesday and Friday of every week. Price, $1.50 a year. For a free sample copy send a postal card to The New York Tribune, New York.

Combination offer—Harper's Bazar, with The Tri-Weekly Tribune, one year, $1.65; The Metropolitan Magazine, with The Tri-Weekly Tribune, one year, $1.65; all three for $2.50.

N. Y. Tribune Review.

The Tribune Weekly Review is a handsome sixteen page weekly issued by The New York Tribune Association. It costs five cents a copy, but may be had for a whole year for $1. There is no other such publication sold anywhere for the money. For free sample copy send a postal card to The Tribune, New York.

Combination offer—Harper's Bazar, with The Tribune Weekly Review, one year, $1.50; The Metropolitan Magazine, with The Tribune Weekly Review, one year, $1.50; all three for $2 20.

N. Y. Tribune Almanac.

If you never examined The Tribune Almanac just invest a quarter for once, and see how well pleased you'll be. The 1905 one will be on sale January 1, and may be had from your newsdealer, through your local paper or direct from The Tribune office, New York.
